

ngena stands for “Next Generation Enterprise Network Alliance”. We provide a central cloud platform that merges the local networks of our international telecommunication alliance partners into a single global Software-Defined Wide Area Network (SD-WAN).

Business Operations Manager (m/f/d)

Have you always dreamed of working for an international start-up company? Then take this next step into the future and join us as our new colleague for a full-time position in Frankfurt am Main.

Your new job

- You will drive strategic topics in close collaboration with top management
- Coordinate and facilitate cross-functional collaboration to deliver the best possible results
- Identify and push process improvement to support business strategies and objectives
- Take leadership for certain topics, deliver results and handover to line-function (e.g. setup sales steering, accelerate platform development, develop vision/mission)
- Drive interdisciplinary projects in an international context
- Develop project plans, execute against milestones and be part of strategic decision makings
- Moderate internal and external meetings across functional units and different management levels in a result-oriented way

Your assets

- You have successfully completed your Masters studies in business management, economics or similar
- You have gained at least several years of professional experience in one of the top strategy consulting firms
- Managing projects in complex and demanding environments is engaging for you
- You are enthusiastic about innovative business models and you enjoy working in an agile environment
- Analytical skills and the ability to quickly convert ideas into actions are no problem for you
- Solving problems from different fields with out-of-the-box ideas is what drives you
- You possess a high degree of conceptual thinking and effective communication
- Affinity for latest technology trends especially in telecommunications and/or IT is a plus
- You are structured, pragmatic, motivated, empathetic and self-sufficient
- Communicating fluently in English is no problem for you, and if you know some German or Spanish – even better!

Your chance

An exciting, dynamic, international start-up environment awaits you with an open corporate culture of flat hierarchies. At ngena, responsibility will be in your hands from the very beginning. You will continuously grow both on the professional and personal front amongst a diverse team of more than 30 nationalities, varied age groups and a wide range of skill-sets. This fusion will prepare you for paving the world with ngena’s leading SD-WAN technology.
